MEDICINAL.

ONE OF DR. CUPID'S PRESCRIPTIONS.

That Love sometimes cures disease is a fact that has recently been called to the attention of the public by a prominent physician and college professor. In some nervous diseases of women, such as hysteria, this physician gives instances where women were put in a pleasant frame of mind, were made happy by falling in love, and in consequence were cured of their nervous troubles—the weak, nervous system toned and stimulated by little Dr. Cupid—became strong and vigorous, almost without their knowledge. Many a woman is nervous and irritable, feels dragged down and worn out, for no reason that she can think of. She may be ever so much in love, but Dr. Cupid fails to cure her. In ninety-nine per cent. of these cases it is the womanly organism which requires attention; the weak back, dizzy spells and black circles about the eyes, are only symptoms. Go to the source of the trouble and correct the irregularities, the drains on the womanly system and the other symptoms disappear. So sure of it is the World's Dispensary Medical Association, proprietors of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, that they offer a $500 reward for women who cannot be cured of leucorrhea, female weakness, prostrations, or falling of the womb. All they ask is a fair and reasonable trial of their means of cure. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets clear the complexion and sweeten the breath, they cleanse and regulate the stomach, liver and bowels and produce permanent benefit and do not react on the system. One is a gentle laxative.

"The Common Sense Medical Adviser" is sent free, paper-bound, for 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 3 stamps for cloth-bound copy. Address, World's Dispensary, Buffalo, N.Y.

Florence Crittenton Mission.

Charges of gross immorality on the part of consular officials located in Liberia were made by Miss A. A. Klein, one of the speakers at yesterday's session of the Florence Crittenton Mission in a talk on "Preventive and Rescue Work for Girls in Africa."

Miss Klein has been in Liberia as a missionary of the Lutheran church, stationed at Muehlenberg, 35 miles from the capital, but almost infinitely removed, she explained, from the civilization of that city. She said foreign consuls, when on their way to the interior on business, frequently stopped at her mission station, where she said they would speak lightly on their licentious excesses. Naive women, she said, were regarded by these consuls as legitimate prey, and criminal assault was common, and in many instances unreported. Miss Klein declared the natives, at least in the vicinity where she was stationed, upheld a high standard of morals. Adultery is punished by stoning to death, and the natives live closely according to the Moslem laws. The conditions she described, she said, had greatly impeded the work of the missionaries.

Mrs. E. Spencer Mussey, of Washington, D. C., discussed "State Laws Pertaining to Adultery and Illegitimacy." One great defect in the laws of many states, she said, is that an illegitimate child cannot inherit from its father, even if the father has acknowledged his paternity. She strongly commended the establishment of juvenile courts.

Mrs. Kate W. Barrett said that in New Jersey and Pennsylvania young girls are carefully protected by the laws governing criminal seduction and in their administration, but in the South, she said, it is almost impossible to secure conviction under the law.

The report of the Children's Home in Alexandria, Va., maintained by Mr. Crittenton, showed there are 42 children sheltered there. There were several other addresses during the day, and a discussion of what can be done for the working girl at the St. Louis exposition.

Last night H. H. Hart, of Chicago, talked of the duty of the community to illegitimate children, and Dr. J. G. Kellogg and Dr. Mrs. Paulson, of Battle Creek, Mich., discussed the relation of health to moral regeneration.

Japanese Vessels Sunk.

Russian torpedo boats, belonging to the Vladivostok squadron sank a Japanese military transport, the Kinshu Maru, of 4,000 tons, during the night of April 26, with all on board, with the exception of 17 officers, 20 soldiers, 65 of the crew and 85 coolie carriers. Two hundred others, who refused to surrender, were sent to the bottom with the ship.

The official report of Rear Admiral Yezzen follows: "During the night of April 26 two Russian torpedo boats met at sea the Japanese military transport Kinshu Maru, of 4,000 tons, laden with rice and other military stores and about 1,500 tons of coal. The transport was armed with four Hotchkiss guns of 47 millimeters. The Russians captured on board 17 officers, 20 soldiers, 85 military carriers, or coolies, and 65 of the crew, who surrounded. The remainder of the men, who were to form a landing party and who were left without officers, obstinately refused to surrender or go on board a Russian cruiser. Furthermore, they offered armed resistance to the Russians. In the end they were sent to the bottom with the transport."

Admiral Yezzen also reports that besides the sinking of the Japanese steamer Goyo Maru at Gensan April 25, the Russians sank at sea the same evening the Japanese steamer Nakamura Maru, of 200 tons, whose crew were saved.

Charged with Poisoning Daughter.

Mrs. Henrietta De Witt is now in the Delaware county, N. Y., jail at Delhi, charged with poisoning her 16-year-old daughter, Florence. On the conclusion of the coroner's inquest into the girl's death Wednesday afternoon the woman was arrested on a warrant issued on Monday and taken by Chief of Police Dickinson to Delhi. There she will await the action of the Delaware grand jury, which meets on May 9. After her arrest and the conclusion of the inquest, Mrs. De Witt said: "I am the mother of Florence McIntosh. She was my own flesh and blood, and her father was my first husband. He went away and left me about nine years ago and I have not seen him since. Florence was born in Watertown in January, 1887. I would not poison my own child and a great wrong is being done by charging me with it." Evidence was produced at the inquest to show that Florence was poisoned by arsenic. The girl's life was insured for $2,000. In this connection it was recalled that Charles De Witt, whose name the accused woman bears and who passed as her husband, was found dead last year with his throat cut. He was declared to have committed suicide and an insurance policy of $2,000 was collected.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident is narrated by John Oliver, of Philadelphia, as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite, growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitter: to my great joy the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50c, guaranteed at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store.
